

Wetheringsett Manor Christmas Newsletter

Although this term has seen lots of change in terms of the number of new pupils and staff, I believe it has been a very positive one. As you will see in this newsletter everyone has been incredibly busy and we have seen some fantastic achievements from pupils across the whole school. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their hard work.

I also realise that although Christmas is a wonderful time of the year for many, it does have its challenges, so I have included a couple of links below that may be of use.

101 Day at

We continue to promote our 101-life skills program in school alongside weekly lessons we had a full day dedicated to activities. This term pupils took part in; Painting and decorating, driving theory test, Sewing, Outdoor survival, World geography session and assembling flat pack furniture amongst other things.

This also gives pupils no excuses at home as they can all make a bed, Hoover AND 1st Aid is obviously a vital skill and all pupils did exceptionally well to pass course. I'm not sure Peri (left) was as happy with the effort pupils put in when helping prevent him choking.

Careers continues to be a focus of the school, and not only did we go to the Norfolk and Suffolk careers fairs, but the RAF came in for a talk.

It was fantastic to see our pupils visit the local memorial. They should be as proud of themselves as we are of them.

Things to look out for

In the coming weeks and month our website will have more content on. This will include our new virtual tour so everyone can walk around the school from the comfort of your own home.

Vocational online newsletter to show the creative side of the school in Mechanics, Construction and Catering.

Also, the Wetheringsett Manor Singer, Christmas edition, will appear. This not only see's staff attempt to sing some classic songs but also showcases the ability of our media department. The plan moving forward is for the pupils to take part and demonstrate that they are far better singers than the staf

Have a wonderful Christmas and New year.
